Section Title

This is body text. It should be readable and well-spaced. The template uses 0.75 inch margins on all sides to ensure content stays within safe printing areas.

Subsection Heading

More body text here. Tables should have consistent styling with green headers and alternating row colors.

Column A	Column B	Column C
Row 1 data	More data	Even more data
Row 2 data	Additional info	Details here
Row 3 data	Something else	Final column

Key Takeaway

This is a key point that should stand out from regular body text.

This is a callout box with a mint background. Use it for important quotes, warnings, or highlighted information.
